Today was our New Logo Launch

Dear Parent,

Today has been a very special day for us with the official launch of our new school logo. We started this journey back in January 2017, and a huge amount of time, effort and thought has gone into our new identity. Thank you for all the positive feedback following recent communication. To see all the children so excited and proud this morning, wearing their new polo t-shirts and joining in with the launch, confirms our brilliant new beginnings.

I would like to clarify a few points regarding our new uniform:

- The new uniform is not compulsory until January 2019. There is a new logoed house PE t-shirt. Any mixture of old & new uniform can be worn until January 2019.
- There is no need for our current Y6 or Y5 pupils to buy or wear the new uniform.
- Bookbags do not need to be updated to the new logoed bookbags. New logoed bookbags are available if required.

Belong • Explore • Succeed

- If girls have pinafore dresses they can wear them and outgrow them naturally in the run up to January 2019 - after this date it will be as per the uniform list i.e. grey skirt/skort/shorts or trousers (this will also enable the infants to be more independent in getting changed into and out of PE kit).
- There will be no 'summer' uniform. There was such a variation in summer dress (type/colour) and some girls wearing 'winter uniform' that we didn't look 'one' school. We will get so much more value for our money from the new uniform.
- If you have more than one child in different year groups you will be able to re-use more of the uniform.
- We are still in the process of communicating to schools in Africa who we hope will receive all our old logoed, donated uniform.
- Having taken a couple of the polo t-shirts home to check their 'washing/tumble-drying' wear, they keep true to their size. The cover across the stitching breaks down in the wash (it's supposed to do this) and the logo stitching on the inside of the polo shirts softens.
- A great bonus is the one dark load in the washing machine.

Our children have all received a polo t-shirt today. Please check that you are happy with the size. If not, please bring it back during the first week after half term and let us know what size you would like. All the new uniform is now available to order on Parent Pay.

I really do appreciate your support as we move ahead with these changes. I would like to thank you for your understanding in waiting until now to order new uniform.
