

READING COMPETITION

School Council
and Lesley Parr,
our reading patron,
have launched
a reading competition

What is the task?

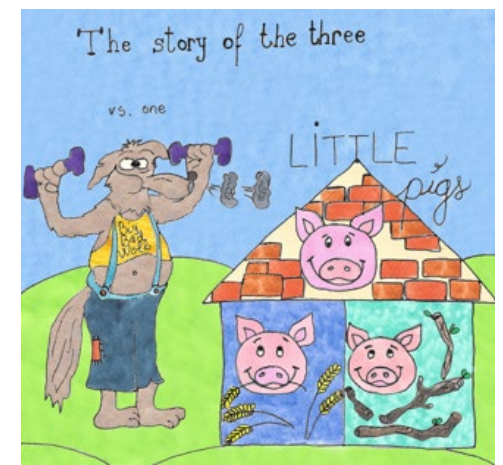

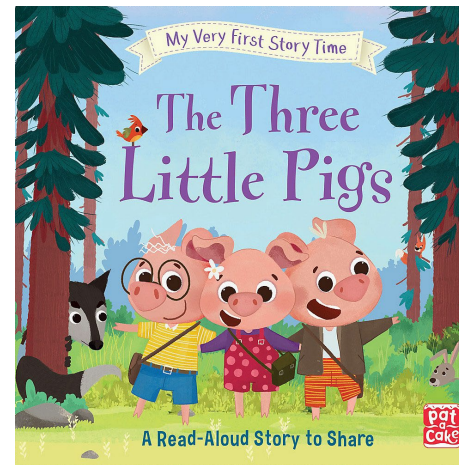

To re-design the front cover of one of your favourite books

The design must include:

- The title of the book
- Some pictures based on the plot, characters, settings within the book

You can be creative and create your front cover using pens, pencils, laptop, iPad, collage, paint...

It is up to you!

Next steps

Where do I start?

Your teacher will have competition forms to give out today. If you want to join in the competition, please take one home.

What do I do once I've finished my front cover?

Bring it into school and give it to your School Council Representative ready for judging!

When is the deadline?

Please bring in your competition form by Friday 4th November. This means you have half term to complete it!

Winners

How will judging work?

The School Council Representatives will choose a winner from each year group.

They will then send the shortlisted entries to Lesley Parr who will choose an overall winner in KS1 and KS2.

Will there be prizes?

Every person who enters will receive a certificate. There will be book-related prizes for the winners in each year group and overall winners in KS1 and KS2. The front covers of the shortlisted entries will be included as part of our 'Reading Patron' display.
