Jane Porter

A visit by an award-winning writer and illustrator

On February 14th, award winning writer and illustrator, Jane Porter will be a special guest of Warden Hill Primary School

Jane Porter is an award-winning, highly acclaimed, writer, illustrator, graphic artist and art tutor.

Jane's wonderful picture books include So You Want to Be an Owl, A Little Bit of Hush, Let's Get Ready for School and Little Rebels Book Award winner, The Boy Who Loved Everyone. Last year, Jane returned to the preschool setting that inspired that title, to create The Girl Who Noticed Everything. This month, she presents a companion piece to So You Want to Be an Owl, in So You Want to Be a Frog.

Jane Porter has collaborated with a number of writers and illustrators, demonstrating her dexterity, flourish and curiosity.

Alongside her literary work, Jane teaches illustration and comics at the Putney School of Art. She is a visiting lecturer in MA illustration at the University of Hertfordshire. She also teaches art to under 5's once a week. Jane is a rivers' conservation volunteer and fiddle player.
